WARNING

Under Maine law, an equine professional has limited liability for an injury or death resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities. "Inherent risks of equine activities" means those dangers and conditions that are an integral part of equine activities, including, but not limited to:

1. The propensity of an equine to behave in ways that may result in damages to property or injury, harm or death to persons on or around the equine. Such equine behavior includes, but is not limited to, bucking, shying, kicking, running, biting, stumbling, rearing, falling and stepping on;
2. The unpredictability of an equine's reaction to such things as sounds, sudden movements and unfamiliar objects, persons or other animals;
3. Certain hazards such as surface and subsurface conditions;
4. Collisions with other equines or objects; and
5. Unpredictable or erratic actions by others relating to equine behavior.
